Ian McColl Stewart

We continue to celebrate the Festival of Christmass today. We trust that Christmass-tide is a very spiritually enriching and rewarding celebration for all. Refreshments are served in the porch following the 8am and 9:30am Eucharists. Please join us.

We express our thanks to the Organists and to the Cathedral Choir for their presence today. We equally say thank you to former members of the Choir and to other friends from Sydney and Canberra who are singing with us this Sunday.

Today is the 13th Dean's final Sunday as our Dean and Parish Priest. We wish him a long, useful and happy retirement.

The Dean is the preacher at all services today.

At 6pm Sung Evensong, The Dean installs The Rev'd Dr Julia Perry to the Stanton Canonry. All welcome!

Cathedral News

THANK YOU

Both in the lead up to and in the celebration of this Christmass Festival, a great number of people assisted in making the Cathedral building a place of beauty and in assisting in the celebration of various liturgies. We offer our special thanks to:

- Suzanne Evans and Lance Webb for the floral decorations and to Suzanne for setting up the Crib;
- Peter Nevell and Lance Webb for their extra work with the brass;
- our Servers, Sidespersons and Readers;
- Peter Guy and our Assistant Organists as well as members of the Choirs for the wonderful music;
- the Dean's Secretary and the Vergers for their expertise and hard work.

Thank you to everyone for a splendid Team effort.

THE BAPTISTRY

The Cathedral Baptistry is one of the many treasures in the Cathedral Church. Our Parishioner, Bronwyn Orrock, has recently completed a very fine work of art which is now placed near the Baptistry giving us all an understanding of the history of this part of the Cathedral. We thank Bronwyn for this wonderful work which enriches our knowledge of the history of the Cathedral.

NEW YEAR'S DAY

The celebration of the New Year is a significant time for us all to give thanks, to take stock of our lives and to look forward in hope to the future. Christians have often put aside time on New Year's Day to be present at the Eucharist and seek God's grace for the year ahead. Two Eucharists in the Cathedral on New Year's Day – 8am and 10:30am.

JANUARY ARRANGEMENTS

The Cathedral Office is open as usual this week except New Year's Day. During January there are no alterations to the Sunday and Weekday Services.

THE SOUVENIR SHOP

The Shop has been splendidly supported in recent weeks. Thank you to Di Davies and "the team" - the Shop contributed a further $3,000 to the Cathedral from its profits. Thank you very much. Of course, you should stop at the Shop today and especially notice the great January reading in the Bookshop.
